

Good and Bad Procrastination

Swipe →

—
01

The most impressive people I know are all terrible procrastinators.

02

What's "small stuff?"
Roughly, work that has zero chance of being mentioned in your obituary.

03

In fact, it may not be a difference in degree,
but a difference in kind.

04

Conversely, forcing someone to perform errands synchronously is bound to limit their productivity.

05

The trouble is, you may end up hooking a very big fish with this bait.

06

I think the way to "solve" the problem of procrastination is to let delight pull you instead of making a to-do list push you.

Found this useful?

Follow for more, and save this post.

By Paul Graham · <https://paulgraham.com/procrastination.html> · Condensed key points; read the original. Source rights retained by the author/speaker.